

Professional Women's Roundtable 5th Annual Community Business Expo APRIL 23, 2010

EXHIBITOR INFORMATION

The Professional Women's Roundtable (PWR) will host our Fifth Annual Community Business Expo. Not only will this offer your business a great opportunity to showcase your goods or services to the Community, net proceeds also benefit PWR's programs designed to help our businesswomen and community projects.

This event will be widely publicized throughout surrounding neighborhoods, other businesses and private homes. We will have full media exposure, including grass roots poster and mail campaigns, and advertisements in local papers to ensure our event has proper exposure. You will be provided flyers to mail/email to clients and friends. By popular demand, we are returning to the highly successful 2008/09 venue and we expect to once again generate large public participation, further enhancing this wonderful opportunity to help promote your business. You will also benefit from networking amongst the vendors.

Participation in this event is initially offered to current PWR Members at special members' only rates.
